Dresscode

Anáhuac Querétaro

Model United Nations

Conference

General:

- The following establishes the official dress code for UAQMUN 2027.
- The dress code established for the event follows the formal dress code observed by the United Nations.
- The use of traditional or national attire is recognized and permitted (costumes or any type of characterization that is not recognized as traditional or national attire are not permitted) as a form of formal dress, provided that it is appropriate for the formal and diplomatic nature of the event.
- The use of neutral colors is recommended; however, pastel colors and light shades are also permitted for ties and shirts.

- Any person present within the event premises, regardless of their role or position (including delegates, Faculty Advisors, and Staff), who fails to comply with the established dress code will be required to leave the event.

    I. The individual will not be permitted to return to the event until they are wearing the appropriate attire in accordance with the provisions of this dress code.

- All attire must be clean, well-maintained, appropriately fitted, and suitable for the formal and diplomatic nature of UAQMUN 2027. Clothing, accessories, patterns, or designs that are excessively casual, revealing, extravagant, or inappropriate for a diplomatic setting may be considered a violation of the dress code, even if not expressly prohibited in the provisions above.

    I. The Secretariat reserves the right to determine whether attire complies with the spirit and purpose of the UAQMUN 2027 Dress Code.

Men:

- Suit: Mandatory. The suit must be clean, well-maintained, and wrinkle-free. Permitted suit colors are black, navy blue, and dark gray. Bright colors, red, yellow, orange, and other colors outside the established palette are not permitted.

- Shirt: The shirt must be clean, properly ironed, and coordinated with the suit. Permitted colors are black, navy blue, gray, white, beige, brown, pastel colors, and light shades. Solid-colored shirts or shirts with discreet patterns are recommended. Excessively bright or elaborate patterns are not permitted.
- Tie: Mandatory. Ties must maintain a formal and professional appearance. Solid-colored ties or ties with discreet patterns are recommended. Permitted colors are black, navy blue, gray, white, beige, brown, pastel colors, and light shades. Bright or highly saturated colors may be used only if they do not represent, communicate, or reference any political or social discourse. Extravagant patterns, slogans, symbols, or designs that may be considered inappropriate for a diplomatic setting are not permitted.
- Footwear: Footwear must be formal, clean, and in good condition. Black and dark brown are recommended. Sneakers, athletic footwear, and other casual footwear are not permitted. Socks are mandatory and should preferably be in dark or neutral colors.
- Hairstyle: Hair must be clean, neat, and well-groomed. Long hair may be worn loose or tied back, provided that it maintains a professional and formal appearance.

Women:

- Attire: Dresses or skirts are recommended. The length of the dress or skirt must not exceed 5 cm above the knee. Neutral and formal colors are preferred for dresses and skirts. The use of red, bright colors, or colors outside the established palette is not permitted. Shoulders must remain appropriately covered. Micro-straps or spaghetti straps are not permitted.
- In the case of wearing a blouse or shirt with a skirt, the skirt must be in a neutral and formal color, such as black, navy blue, gray, beige, or brown. The blouse or shirt may be in black, navy blue, gray, white, beige, brown, pastel colors, or light shades, provided that it maintains a formal appearance. Excessively bright colors and elaborate or inappropriate patterns are not permitted.
- Makeup: Makeup, if worn, should maintain a discreet, understated, and professional appearance appropriate for the formal nature of the event.

- Hairstyle: Hair must be clean, neat, and well-groomed. It should not obstruct the face during formal activities. Long hair may be worn loose or tied back, provided that it maintains a professional and formal appearance.
- Footwear: Shoes must be formal, clean, and in good condition, and should complement the attire. Closed-toe footwear is required, and toes must not be visible. Neutral and discreet colors are recommended. Excessively casual footwear is not permitted.
- In the case of wearing a suit, the same guidelines established in the corresponding men's section shall apply.
